1933, ch. 542.

65. Every person, firm, corporation, association or co-partnership opening, establishing, operating or maintaining two or more stores or mercantile establishments where goods, wares and/or merchandise are offered for sale at retail within this State, under the same general management, supervision, or ownership, shall pay the license fees hereinafter prescribed for the privilege of opening, establishing, operating or maintaining such stores or mercantile establishments. The license fee herein prescribed shall be paid annually, and shall be in addition to the license fee prescribed in Sections 44 to 64, both inclusive of this Article.

The license fees herein prescribed shall be as follows:

(1) Upon two stores or more, but not to exceed five stores, the annual license fee shall be five dollars for each such store;

(2) Upon each store in excess of five, but not to exceed ten, the annual license fee shall be twenty dollars for each such additional store;

(3) Upon each store in excess of ten, but not to exceed twenty, the annual license fee shall be one hundred dollars for each such additional store;

(4) Upon each store in excess of twenty, the annual license fee shall be one hundred and fifty dollars for each such additional store.

The term "store" or mercantile establishments as used herein shall not be construed to include automobile service stations at which the principal business is the sale or distribution of gasoline and motor fuel.

Additional license fees imposed by this section not payable until May 1, 1934. In computing additional fees to be paid, the number of establishments operated by one person or corporation throughout the state and not the number in any particular county or in Baltimore City is to be taken as basis of calculation. Read Drug & Chemical Co. v. Claypoole, 165 Md. 251.

1939, ch. 682.

66. (1) No person, firm, association, partnership or corporation shall engage in selling any flowers or flowering plants, bushes or shrubs at whole-sale or retail, in Baltimore City, unless he or it is the bona fide grower thereof or is duly licensed as a florist pursuant to this section.
